

A More Perfect Union

"U.S. Constitution & Purpose of Government"

Looking for our old Constitution song?

JOHN LOCKE:

It's _____ representing the _____. I got it on lock.

THOMAS JEFFERSON:

Who wrote the _____? It's _____.

JAMES MADISON:

Yeah, yeah, yeah. It's _____. The father of the _____.

JOHN LOCKE:

I'm the thinker with the theories 'bout the government,
Got the Enlightenment on lock, because I'm running it.
You wannabe Beyonces - change your clothes,
I wrote down thoughts and I changed the globe.
Like we're born with _____,
Then we form governments to make the people act nice.
You can ask my French homme-y _____,
When we set up governments what we all should do:
The powers of the state should be separate,
In case the king is a jerk and not a gentleman.
Plus I wrote about _____,
And said the state shouldn't dictate religion or abolish it.
I advocate revolution like Che,
When the state gets too powerful and too paid.
Your whole country owes me a debt,
The name's John Locke, don't forget.

THOMAS JEFFERSON:

Ayo, I'm ill with the quill skills, I'm Thomas Jefferson,
Every line I wrote probably hit you like some medicine.
British _____ - they won't even let us in?
I've got a bright idea like _____,
We'll govern ourselves, tell the English "peace," _____ agreed and called upon me
To write a declaration that we should be free.
What should I put in it? Well let's see...
Inspiration came from the Enlightenment,
So I'll use those ideas when I'm writing it.
We're born with certain _____,
The _____, liberty, and life.
These rights aren't given to us by the state,
We form governments just to keep 'em safe.
And when the government is not _____,
It's our right to rebel and abolish it.

JAMES MADISON:

Check the status son, I'm James Madison,
I'm at the _____, you staying at the Radisson.
I'm the father of the constitution — I drafted it,
And it wasn't an accident.
The question for me: Should America be _____ joined sorta loosely? (No!)
The Articles of Confederation were weak,
We need a government that's more like Bruce Lee —
Strong. 'Cause if it can't raise cash,
Who's gonna respect a government like that?
A federal government will pass laws for the nation,
So we need bodies to write the _____.
And we need justice, _____,
A _____ to lead, he will be the voice.
We'll be taxing, to pay for the action,
We'll have a _____, no relaxing.
Let's go!

Form a more perfect union,
Establish _____,

Insure _____,

Provide for the _____,

Promote the _____,

Secure the blessing of _____,

To our ourselves and our _____...
