

Section 2

Students' maps should show the regions outlined and the names of the colonies underlined and include at least two details for each region.

Section 3

Possible notes for Massachusetts (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: first by Pilgrims led by William Bradford; later by Puritans led by John Winthrop
- Reasons for settlement: to escape religious persecution
- Climate and geography: harsh winters and warm summers; rich pastures and forests
- Economy: crop and livestock farming, lumbering
- Religion: Puritan
- Government: self-governing, as described in the Mayflower Compact

Section 4

Possible notes for Rhode Island (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: former Puritans from Massachusetts led by Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson
- Reasons for settlement: religious freedom from the Puritans
- Climate and geography: humid summers and cold winters; coastal lowlands and rocky woodlands
- Economy: farming, lumbering, shipbuilding, fishing, whaling
- Religion: various faiths
- Government: self-governing

Section 5

Possible notes for Connecticut (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: Former Massachusetts Puritans led by Thomas Hooker
- Reasons for settlement: to establish a new settlement apart from Massachusetts Puritans

- Climate and geography: cold winters and mild summers; forested hills and seacoast
- Economy: farming, shipbuilding, fishing, whaling
- Religion: Puritan
- Government: self-governing, with written constitution

Section 6

Possible notes for New York (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: Dutch and English
- Reasons for settlement: to make money
- Climate and geography: cold winters and hot summers; wetlands and forested mountains
- Religion: various faiths
- Government: British-appointed governor and council; eventually an elected assembly

Section 7

Possible notes for Pennsylvania (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: English Quakers led by William Penn
- Reasons for settlement: to safely practice their religion
- Climate and geography: cold winters and hot summers; rolling hills and fertile soil
- Economy: farming, trade, lumbering, and shipbuilding
- Religion: various faiths
- Government: elected assembly

Section 8

Possible notes for Maryland (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: English Catholics and Protestants
- Reasons for settlement: to find religious and political freedom
- Climate and geography: cold winters, hot summers; low, fertile land surrounding Chesapeake Bay
- Economy: farming, lumbering, shipping, fishing, iron mining
- Religion: various faiths, particularly Catholic
- Government: elected assembly

Section 9

Possible notes for Virginia (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: English landowners and skilled laborers
- Reasons for settlement: to make a profit
- Climate and geography: mild winters and hot summers; coastal lowlands and wooded mountains
- Economy: farming
- Religion: Church of England
- Government: elected assembly (House of Burgesses)

Section 10

Possible notes for Georgia (symbols will vary):

- Settlers: debtors from English prisons, and other Europeans
- Reasons for settlement: to find religious freedom and cheap land
- Climate and geography: mild winters and hot summers; wetlands and forested mountains
- Religion: various faiths
- Government: ruled by James Oglethorpe for 12 years, then an elected assembly